

David F. Habicht
Portrait Sculptor

Born: South Bend, IN 1957

Education: B.A. Religious Studies, Albion College 1980
M.A. Studio Art, University of Notre Dame 1983
M.F.A. Ceramics, University of Notre Dame 1984

In 1991 I began creating portraits of international figures, all of whom I have met and personally interviewed. The series to date consists of:

Desmond Tutu
Anglican Archbishop of Capetown

Alice Walker
Author of The Color Purple

Jimmy Carter
39th U.S. President

Tensin Gyatso
14th Dalai Lama

Muhammad Ali
3 Time World Heavyweight Boxing Champion

Theodore Hesburgh, CSC
President Emeritus, University of Notre Dame

Peter Volkous
Ceramic Artist

John Updike
Poet, Essayist and Novelist

Madeleine Albright
Former U.S. Secretary of State

Maya Angelou
Poet and Novelist